

I'm opposed to changes in telephone privacy laws that would allow businesses to assume that they have my consent to place calls, for promotional or solicitation purposes, to telephone numbers, including fax machines, that have been placed on do not call lists.